NOT GUILTY

As Charged in the Indictment, Says the Jury and Jacob Love Walks Forth a Free Man

The case of the Commonwealth against Jacob Cleveland Love, charged with voluntary manslaughter for the killing of Ellsworth Huron on trial in the Mason Circuit Court for the past two days, terminated yesterday in the acquittal of the accused on the ground of self-defense.

It is understood that the jury stood on the first ballot eleven to one for acquittal. The Commonwealth was represented by County Attorney T. D. Slattery and the defense by Attorney A. D. Cole.

The unfortunate killing occurred on Monday night, October 31, 1911, on J. J. Wood & Son's corner, and was witnessed by a number of reputable witnesses whose testimony tended to show that the act was committed in self-defense.

PLAY BALL!

Manager McKernon and His Battle Creek Tossers Here

Manager Ed. McKernon and his aggregation of ball tossers arrived here yesterday on the 1:35 train from Michigan to begin training for the coming season. The following is his line-up: Lefts, catcher, last season with the Winchester Club; Callahan, short stop, last season with Winchester; Salder, pitcher last season in Western League; Faber, pitcher in Southern League and Battle Creek; Valentine, infielder, Tri State League; Piechindahl, outfielder; Vordenburg, pitcher, with Oakland Club; Fitzcharles, left-handed pitcher of Edgerton, O., with semi-professional clubs of Ohio; Brindley, 31 base of Vevay, Ind., recommended by Frank Chance of Chicago; Ell, infielder, with Middletown, O., last season; Wenhay, left base, with Battle Creek last season. They are all a gentlemanly looking set of ball players. While here the boys will take their meals at the Manhattan Restaurant.

CORSETS

With medium high, or low bust are preferred. Perfect hip lines are indispensable, therefore that part of the figure receives more attention than the upper part which most appear simple, as though unassisted. In fitting women who are particular regarding fashions the corsette feels the fitting ends at the waist line and she depends on brassieres to take care of the bust, and back, which they certainly do in the most satisfactory way. A full line of the very newest corsets $1 to $5. Brassieres 50c to $1.

Suits That Are Satisfying

Enough styles to satisfy the most diversified tastes. For women who like quiet models we have conservative Suits with just the right 1912 touch. For women who prefer extreme styles we have Suits with all the latest modifications. And prices so small $10 to $25. A wonderful assortment at $15 and $17½.

Double Toe-Tipped STOCKINGS.

Fast black, durable stockings, just received. Two thicknesses of material at the toes protect the stocking at its worst wearing point. There is no seam to hurt, and the double part is sufficiently elastic for comfort. Black fine thread. 25c a pair.

A Splendid Line

Of cable net and Nottingham Curtains at special prices—a combination of low markings and attractive qualities you can't afford to ignore if you need window hangings. Two splendid lines of Lace Curtains at $2½ and $3.75.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION MEETS TODAY

Pursuant to a call of the Republican State Central Committee there will be a Republican County Convention at the Court House in the City of Maysville, Ky., on April 6th, 1912, at 1:00 p. m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to the District Convention which meets at Maysville on April 9th, 1912, and the State Convention which meets at Louisville, Ky., April 10th, 1912.

All Republicans are requested to keep this date in mind and be present at the convention.

H. P. PERKINS, Chairman
Mason County Republican Committee,
Maysville, Ky., March 25th, 1912.

Roosevelt made a great man out of Taft and now Taft is making an ass out of Roosevelt.—Carlisle Mercury.

Very cleverly, if not elegantly put. However, Taft was a great man before Teddy o. k'd him.

Matchless orators and peerless leaders used to tell us that what we needed to get back good government in its purity was free coinage of silver.

A little while before that they told us it was unlimited issues of first paper currency or a ban on immigration or single for public ownership, just as they are telling us now that the royal road to good government is via the initiative, the referendum and the recall.

There is a good deal of quackery about this business. What we need is not so much new laws and new methods as it is an aroused civic conscience to use with wisdom and integrity the laws and the methods we have. If a man wishes to go to Louisville and takes a train for Chicago, it is useless for him to demand more and different railroads. If men pick out the worst scamps in the community to rule over them, it is childish for them to ask for some law that will make them fill the offices with persons of brains and character.—Indianapolis Star.

Every teacher in the public schools of New York has been asked to fill out a blank in answer to the following questions:

What theaters do you attend?
What books do you read?
Do you travel, and where, and for what purpose?

What do you do with your leisure time?
Upon the answers given, the board will determine the teachers salary, rank and chance of promotion in the future.

Has the board of education a right to probe into the private affairs of its teachers? The board declares it has, and its reason is that the old idea that a city employe is paid only for his time clock record, is wrong.

The new idea of efficiency is the keynote of the educational system as well as that of any other business institution. In this sense, then an employe's whole time belongs to the city, and he should use it in such a way as to increase his efficiency, if he wants to be considered for promotion.

Every organization to day is trying to raise the standard of efficiency, so that there will be no lost motion.

It adds infinitely to one's own feeling of responsibility to realize that the total output of every worker. The teachers are part of the great machinery that is turning out future citizens and they need to spend their leisure time in study and further preparation.

The Republicans of Mason county, with a unanimity of purpose that presages victory all along the line, will meet this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Courthouse to select delegates to the State Convention next Wednesday at Louisville. There is practically no opposition to President Taft in Maysville or Mason county and the 26 votes of the county will go to Louisville solid for him. Next Wednesday the State of Kentucky will declare for Taft in no uncertain tones by sending an almost solid delegation for him to the Chicago Convention. Taft has the nomination already won and further opposition to him is senseless.

Judge O'Rear has announced that he is a candidate for Delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention. He is also an announced supporter of Colonel Roosevelt in the face of the Taft resolution adopted at his instance and incorporated in the Republican State platform on which he made the race for Governor last year. According to custom this honor has been given the last Republican nominee for Governor without the asking and Judge O'Rear, we believe, is the first to seek it. Under the circumstances, however, it is inconceivable that the Republican party violate its pledge to Mr. Taft as Judge O'Rear has done, and carry out the old custom. He has chosen to make his fight as a Roosevelt adherent and as such will be fought.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Foolish Philosophy.

Little girls have a habit of finding a great deal of unreasonable fault with their little brothers. And after the girls are grown they wonder why their brothers do not love them as they should.

You have many faults, as you certainly have heard; but perhaps you do not know that the greatest is the disposition to overestimate yourself.

Certain situations cause you humiliation when the fault is not yours.

Every woman believes she is an ideal sick-room visitor.

Did you ever see two left-handed men shake hands?

When he is generally known as a Grand Man, it is usually a sign that he takes an interest in some Great Work he can't accomplish.

If the truth hurts you, it is a sign that you have been playing with a lie.

Your troubles are like your children; you must take care of them and keep them out of other people's way.

After a man reaches seventy he is so disgusted that he doesn't fear death much.

When a boy studies for the ministry, the idea is nearly always put into his head by his mother.

You know how easily people bother you? We'll that's the way people feel about you.

There is a certain pleasure in apologizing, when you are not apologizing for anything serious.

When a young woman gets married, every wife longs to have a "private talk" with her.

A thin woman ran to catch a car, and fell into a seat exhausted. "I feel," she panted, "like a fat woman."—Ed. Howe.

Where is He Risen?

By Wilbur D. Nesbit

"And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead."—Matthew xxviii, 7.

I like to think that bud and bloom
And grass and leaf
Are symbols of the empty tomb,
Of ended grief.
I like to think of Him that He
Is risen here,
And that His presence we may see
Each waking year.

For Heaven is so very far,
We cannot reach
The nearest little guarding star
By sight or speech—
But when the day is gladdened by
This clearer blue,
Then Heaven is not far and high
From me and you.

I fain would think He breathes above
The grass and trees,
His heart that throbs with human love
Awakens these,
And lilts pure as acolytes
Their censers swing,
While all the meadowlands and heights
Are worshipping.

So in this thought of mine I find
In stone and clod
And hedge and lattice blossom-twined,
The breath of God.
And yonder in the growing wheat
And fallow lands
I see the path that knew His feet—
Work of His hands.

And so from every bird that sings
I hear the voice
That one supernal message brings.
"Arise! Rejoice!"
I like to think of Him that He
Is risen here,
And that His presence we may see
Each waking year.

The Delinquent Rabbit

By Wilbur D. Nesbit

THEY said last year when Easter was, an' me an' brother John got lots o' eggs with names an' lots o' little pictures on. That rabbit told the Easter eggs, but he showed me where the paper had a picture of the rabbit nest.

"An' Pa, He Showed Me Where the Paper Had a Picture of the Rabbit Nest."

As if they'd glad, their Easter eggs by little boys was found.

An' so I got a bunny now; I had it for a week.
An' it ain't cackled none at all, although inside its little house an' look if I can find some eggs—

"I've Showed It Pictures Like I Want Put on My Easter Eggs."

But it just sits up when I come, an' begs an' begs an' begs.
For lettuce leaf an' cabbage leaf, an' abivers with its nose—
I wonder if a rabbit flaps its wings some when it frowls!

I'm tryin' to encourage it; I've give it bits o' straw—

But it don't build a nest at all, it wants to sit an' gnaw.
The cabbage leaves, an' hep around an' scare an' dogs an' cats.
An' then an' jump a foot or two when I look through the slats.
An' when it's night the rabbit won't get up there on the roof.
An' doesn't like it when I try to help it with a boost.

I've showed it pictures like I want put on my Easter eggs—
I guess it understands me, 'cause it took them with its legs

"Just Sit—an' Begs an' Begs."

In front, an' hold them up, an' tried to eat them, too.
Then let them drop an' looked at me as if to say it knew
Just what I meant—but still it's mighty queer!

It hasn't laid an egg at all, an' Easter's nearly here.

It just sets 'round an' spends its time a wriggle-in its ears.
An' jumpin' sideways, 'frill-like, at such little sound it hears.

I got some corn an' stuff like chickens eat, an' throwed it in.
An' told my rabbit that it's time egg-layin' should begin;
I got a nice big nest egg an' I've put it in the nest.
An' told my rabbit to call in an' do its level best.

Make Your Own Easter Bonnet.
How few women realize the possibilities of things that are ready to hand for making an Easter bonnet that shall be beautiful, unique and individual! The ordinary clothes line lends itself readily to a most artistic creation. Take one that is about worn out and coil it into a braid. Soak this overnight in glue to fix it flatly. Then for the body of the hat spread about ten feet of the rope and arrange this upon graceful loops of the remainder, dyeing it all in different tints to suit your complexion or your taste.

Fasten it on with clothes pins.

A PASSING THOUGHT.

Life is like an Easter egg.
We shatter many a lively dream,
And when we've reached the useful part,
We've spoiled the decorative scheme.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

I am a woman.
I know woman's sufferings.
I have found the cure.
I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is a safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White discharge, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors or Growths; also pains in the head, back and bowels, bearing down feeling, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weakness, kidney and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.
I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you should wish to continue, it will cost you only about 10 cents a week, or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all, old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharge and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Plumonia and health always results from its use.
Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address

Our Colored Citizens.

Mrs. Frances Taylor, better known as "Aunt Frankie," is quite sick at her home in East Fourth street.

Miss Ida Coleman, after a pleasant visit in our city, left for her home in Lexington Thursday morning.

Rev. R. P. Bradner left for Louisville Friday morning, where he will preach to his new congregation.

Mrs. Frances Harris was called here Tuesday on account of the illness of her mother, "Aunt Frankie" Taylor.

There will be Sunday-school at Scott's M. E. Church tomorrow at 9:45 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; sister services at 7:30 p. m.

There will be given in the basement of the Bethel Baptist Church tonight an entertainment for the benefit of the Church by Mrs. Frankie Robertson. All are invited.

Rev. J. L. Franklin, the newly appointed pastor to Scott's M. E. Chapel, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Green of East Third street and will fill the pulpit Sunday.

The Colored Maroons will hold their Easter service at the Bethel Baptist Church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CLARENCE DEXTON, W. M.
W. H. Humphreys, Secretary.

Bethel Baptist Church—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., Miss Jessie C. Bell, Superintendent.
Preaching at 11 a. m., by the Pastor, subject "The Trials of Faith." At 7 o'clock a most excellent Easter program by the Sunday-school. Two to be baptized after the morning session. Strangers and visitors welcome.

R. JACKSON, Pastor.

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good. One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

N. B.—Write: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

THE CHOICEST GARDEN SEED

Our entire seed stock is now in and waiting your selection. You take no chances in planting our seeds, because they are all fresh—last year's production. They are LANDRETH'S SEEDS. That means that they are fresh seeds with a pedigree; seeds grown by a house that has for over a century produced the best seeds in the world; seeds that you can plant with utmost confidence—you are sure of paying crops.

Sweet Pea Seed

Early planting of sweet pea insures large, fragrant flowers, especially if you plant our choice mixed. Plant these right away and you'll have an abundance of blossoms that will be the wonder of your neighborhood. 5c an ounce or 3 ounces for 10c.

THIS WOMAN'S TROUBLES GONE

Terrible Cramps, Dizzy Spells, Nervousness, Misery—Her Story of How She Got Well Again.

Hindsboro, Ill.—"Your remedies have relieved me of all my troubles. I would have such bearing down misery and cramps and such weak, nervous, dizzy spells that I would have to go to bed. Some days I could hardly stay up long enough to get a meal."

"The doctor's medicine did me no good so I changed to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got good results from the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used the Sanative Wash with it, until I was well again. I think every woman who suffers as I have, could take no better medicine."—Mrs. CHARLES MATTISON, Box 58, Hindsboro, Ill.

Testimony of Trained Nurse.

Cathlamet, Wash.—"I am a nurse and when I do much lifting I have a female weakness, but I take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot say enough in praise of it. I always recommend it for female troubles."—Mrs. ELVA BARDEN EDWARDS, Box 51, Cathlamet, Wash.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

Miss Charity Bradley of Flemingsburg fell off the back porch at Rev. Jackson's in East Fourth street this morning and was badly hurt.

Frank Lyle died yesterday morning at his home in East Third street, after a protracted illness. He was born in Virginia, July 25th, 1850. Funeral this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

MARRIAGES

Mr. Martin Conn, aged 22, of Indiana, and Miss Blanche Cummings, aged 21, of this city, were married today at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. R. L. Clark, Pastor of the Christian Church.

RIVER NEWS

The gage marks 43.3 and falling.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Sent for free trial and testimonials. Ad dress: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
